

PILAglobal Ambassador Application

PILAglobal Ambassadors are driven, young individuals who are committed to spreading awareness about PILAglobal's initiatives within their own communities. These individuals are passionate and outspoken leaders who use innovative ways to broaden PILAglobal's reach and amplify the organization's mission.

What do PILAglobal Ambassadors do?

If selected, Ambassadors will do several of the following:

- Meet monthly with PILAglobal board members and other Ambassadors
- Create awareness about PILAglobal's mission and current work by reaching out to student clubs, organizations, and schools in the local community
- Research and help expand PILAglobal's network through innovative outreach
- Organize fundraisers
- Assist with PILAglobal events
- Attend presentations by PILAglobal's on-the-ground partners to learn more about the work being done worldwide

What can PILAglobal Ambassadors gain?

Throughout your time as an Ambassador, you will have the unique opportunity to:

- Experience the inner workings of a nonprofit organization
- Learn about PILAglobal's work towards providing innovative education to children and families affected by displacement and poverty
- Form connections and develop relationships with like-minded individuals nationwide
- Foster professional growth to increase competitiveness towards future careers
- Cultivate leadership and communication skills

After Ambassadors complete their year-long term, they are eligible to become a member of the PILAglobal Board of Directors, where they will be able to take on additional responsibilities and work directly with other Board members on important PILAglobal operations.

Please remember that Ambassadors that are selected must serve for 1 full year and are expected to commit 2-4 hours weekly. Current and previous Ambassadors may reapply for subsequent years. Applicants must be high school seniors or above in order to apply. Please email your completed application to alise@PILAglobal.org.
